[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 30.

Senatorial Election in New Jersey

TRENTON, N J March 29—The senatorial question begins to be exciting. The House to-day passed a resolution for holding a joint convention next Wednesday to elect a Senator but the resolution was lost in the Senate; ayes 8 nays 10 President Scovill Radical saying he first wanted to know who the man would be

PHILADELPHIA March 30—The dispatch about the action of the New Jersey Senate refusing to go into joint convention to elect a U S Senator is explained as follows. The Senate had agreed to a rule requiring a majority of the whole number of eleven senators to adopt such a resolution. The President Scovill Republican voted with the Democrats when therefore the resolution came from the House, ten senators voted aye 1[illegible] and the resolution was not agreed to. The ten ayes were the whole number of Union senators except Scovill, whose action is remarkable when it is remembered that he holds the balance of power in the Senate, and used it successfully at the organization of the Legislature to secure his own election as President. Scovill is a radical Unionist and he possibly proposes to be U S Senator himself. The situation is, therefore, somewhat interesting

WASHINGTON, March 30—The House is not in session having adjourned to Monday. There is much interest felt here in the election of a successor to Senator Stockton. Most of the New Jersey politicians have been called here and it is understood that an exciting contest is going on about Trenton. The prospect from this stand point is not favorable to the election of any out and out Union man. The friends of Stockton say that they have purchased a Republican member of the New Jersey Senate, in which body the Unionists have but one majority, and have thus prevented the election of a Republican Senator from that State

Letter from W. H. Lamon to the President

Ex United States Marshal W H Lamon has addressed a letter to President Johnson relative to the views of the late President on reconstruction. After denouncing Stevens and the Radicals as disunionists, Lamon says—"I came here as Lincoln's special friend and was Marshal of this District during the whole of his Administration down to the day of his death. I was on the most confidential and intimate relations with him, I had many and free conversations with him on that very subject Restoration. I was made entirely certain by his own repeated declaration to me that he would exercise all his authority, power and influence to bring about an immediate reconciliation between the two sections of the country. As far as depended on him he would have had the Southern States represented in both Houses of Congress within the shortest possible time. All the energies of his nature were given to the vigorous prosecution of the war while the rebellion lasted but he was equally determined on a vigorous prosecution of peace, as soon as armed hostilities should be ended. He knew the base designs of the Radicals to keep up the strife for their own advantage and he was determined to thwart them as he told me. [illegible]

Labors of the Congressional Committees.

WASHINGTON March 30th—Congress not being in session several of the most important committees are at work. The committee of Ways and Means are considering the tax bill and the Senate Finance committee the loan bill, both of which will probably be reported next week. The loan bill will not be acted on till after the civil rights bill is disposed of. It is expected the committee will report an amendment to the loan bill, requiring all Government transactions in gold, and bonds to be published before hand by due notice

Increased Immigration into the United States

According to a Cork paper, four thousand persons left Ireland during the first week of the present month for the United States, by way of Queenstown. Two thousand of them belonged to the middle or laboring class. Fifteen hundred passengers are now waiting in Queenstown to go to the United States

A Havre letter says the number of emigrants from Germany arriving to take passage for America, has lately increased to an extraordinary degree. Not less than one thousand emigrants are lodging in the quarters of St Francis waiting for vessels. A Bremen letter says the emigration to America is daily assuming greater proportions. The emigrants are nearly all Northerners and [illegible]

Incendiarism. Resignation Rumor Denied.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Bernsberg's brewery at St Paul, Minn., the largest in the city, was burned on Tuesday night, the 27th. The loss was $75,000. The brewery has been in the hands of the Government for defrauding revenue, and it is supposed to have been set on fire

The Louisville Courier of March 28th denied the report of the resignation of General John M Palmer. It says the General never tendered his resignation and don't know how the rumor got afloat

Passengers and Freight for Montana.

The St Louis Democrat of March 27th says, that within the next two weeks two thousand persons chiefly miners, and three thousand tons of freight will leave that port for Montana and Idaho.

An Important Decision in the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court of the United States decided in the case appealed from Massachusetts that a license to sell liquor under the Internal Revenue act does not give Federal protection against the enforcement of State prohibitory laws. There are some fifteen hundred unsettled cases in Massachusetts involving penalties estimated at over $300 000 which have been awaiting the above decision. A strong lobby of the liquor dealers' association is now at Washington urging the amendment to the Internal Revenue act so as to give protection to all who pay license.

Letter from St. Paul.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

ST PAUL, MINNESOTA, Feb 26, 1866

THE ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC

The proposed union of the Atlantic and Pacific by railroad over the northern route, is attracting a great degree of attention in various parts of America, and in England. The London Railway Record, in the interest of English capitalists, who it will be remembered are largely in favor of the north western railroad to the Pacific, has an article well worthy of attention from which I learn that of the routes by which Central British America has hitherto been approached—through Hudson's Bay by Lake Superior, and over the Plains from St. Paul the preference given to the latter is now admitted, and the events of the few past years show that there is no barrier so formidable but what it can be surmounted and a railway completed within a reasonable time. The Record's article closes with the following paragraph:

In 1862 the railway system of the United States terminated at La Crosse in the State of Wisconsin. Thence steam navigation to St Paul land transportation for 250 miles to Georgetown, on the Red River and steam navigation to Fort Garry, were the improved modes of transit. Beyond the Selkirk settlements the oared bateau and the wooden car of the fur-trader are the rude resources of the inhabitants. But, with gold discoveries a new state of things is at hand. Steamers once placed on Lake Winnipeg and the Saskatchewan, an emigrant can make the journey from Toronto in Canada, to the Mines of British Columbia in thirty days and at less expense than is now required for the journey on land from the south of the Fraser's river to the Cariboo country. If we are not mistaken, this great work will be a leading enterprise of the coming year

TRANSPORTATION MEETINGS

The enormous railroad, canal and lake charges on grain from the banks of the Mississippi to the Atlantic coast, have fully aroused the people of Illinois Missouri Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin and they are now giving very emphatic expression to their determination to submit no longer to the exactions of the transportation companies. It is asserted as a matter of fact that it costs three bushels of corn to send one to market a distance of one hundred miles; one hundred bushels to get a pair of boots one thousand bushels to get a suit of clothes, and two tons of corn for a ton of coal. A farmer at Waterloo Iowa, was actually brought five dollars in debt by a shipment of barley to Chicago. In addition to this grievance of high charges is the insufficiency of the land routes to carry the constantly increasing bulk of grain seeking a market at the East while the Iowa grain shippers complain that their wheat is "doctored" by the Chicago warehousemen by which the price of their best wheat is reduced to that of the mixed quantities shipped East. Two modes of relief are proposed. One, by the Chicago people anxious to retain their profitable position as the great focus of the Western grain trade is for a ship canal around the falls of Niagara, by means of which grain laden vessels may proceed direct from Chicago to Liverpool or the Eastern ports. The second by the business men of Missouri Iowa, Western Illinois Minnesota and Wisconsin, is the improvements of the navigation of the Mississippi river, by means of canals around the upper rapids and lower of Des Moines rapids, so as to secure uninterrupted water communication with the Atlantic States. Both plans contemplate the aid of Congress. The idea is for the General Government to build the canals and remunerate itself by imposing tolls. Meetings have already been held at the West in aid of the enterprise, and more are appointed. The matter is one which seriously affects the whole Atlantic seaboard where cheap food is a thing of vital importance and the people of the East should unite with the West to see what can be done to promote their joint interest in the premises.

WINTER SCENES

As may be expected we are still closed in by snow and ice, and there is very little of general interest transpiring. The weather has been [illegible] cold. We have had no such [illegible] for years. The mercury has been too paralyzed to climb for months, and the principal topics of conversation are snow and ice, skating parties on both Lake Como and the Mississippi, sleigh rides to Minnehaha, the Falls, and Stillwater. Since business has so fairly closed, our daily papers have but little else than reviews of the past, with which to instruct us, from one of which I learn that last winter—the season of 1865 as it is termed—was the longest with only four exceptions for sixteen years and had it not been for the backward opening of navigation (later than the average) would have been the longest season on record. The present season closed on December 1st, that being the date of the departure of the last boat, although one arrived on the day following. Taking the weather here generally, we can well apostrophize it as the river reporter of a Louisville paper did the Ohio recently:

ODE 2 THEE RIVER

O, rivver! oo hoo bussum
Flotes the botes so full of biz;
I half the cur yure awl dride up,
Thee [illegible] haf yure friz.
The "other" has gone to "take suthin."

CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT.—The following from the Washington correspondence of the Bulletin of February 19th, shows that the sentiment of the Union press of the East is in perfect accordance with that of the majority of the Union press on this coast. It also shows that the President has erred greatly in his course:

The persistency with which the Democracy and a small portion of the Union party have [illegible] that Congress should accept without debate what is called "the President's plan of reconstruction," has provoked an earnest discussion of the character and tendency of that policy, both in Congress and out of it, and a close inquiry into the respective powers of the executive and legislative branches of the Government. All of the recent speakers in the Senate and House, [illegible] reconstruction question was up, [illegible] emphatically upon those points, and [illegible] pressed by the leading Union orators [illegible] sustained by the Union press. [illegible] private opinion, but an admitted [illegible] write that there has been a marked [illegible] public sentiment with reference to the President's policy. His patriotism and integrity are [illegible] tioned, but the average opinion of [illegible] ists inclines to the conclusion that his [illegible] has not been as productive of as good [illegible] were confidently expected of it. The [illegible] communities have not, it is believed, [illegible] a fitting manner to the magnanimous and [illegible] course of the Executive, which was [illegible] ease the way and hasten the period for their [illegible] ration to the Union as equal participants in [illegible] Government. They have turned the current of popular feeling in the North, which was setting strongly toward them, by electing disloyal representatives to Congress, by choosing prominent traitors for their Chief Magistrates, by [illegible] and practically ostracising not only [illegible] Unionists, but their own fellow-citizens who were true to the Government, and by [illegible] upon the principle that as fast as they [illegible] gain control of their affairs they would, [illegible] their own phrase, "undo all that the [illegible] have done."

Whether [illegible] after all, exceptional, or at the worst only [illegible] idences of subsiding passion, instead of the [illegible] tions of a fixed and general policy, is a [illegible] which few stop to consider. The verdict is [illegible] made up on these unfavorable facts as they [illegible] and it is not favorable to the [illegible] toration of the rebel States. Congress [illegible] reflects the popular [illegible] in this [illegible] despite the reiterated [illegible] ism of that body, I [illegible] learned of Northern sentiment, that in [illegible] admit Southern representatives [illegible] taining ample guarantees [illegible] equality, will be fully [illegible] they count upon a successful [illegible] maneuver upon their hypocritical [illegible] the President's policy they will [illegible] greatly deceived. While there [illegible] sire for harmony in the councils [illegible] the Government, the fact that Congress and the Executive represents the [illegible] of the people is distinctly recognized; and [illegible] judgment of that body should not continue in all its details a policy which the President [illegible] obliged to adopt under different [illegible] and when Congress was not in a [illegible] to aid him, its decision will not be regarded except [illegible] by Copperheads—as a condemnation of the Executive, as evidence of a breach with him, or as portending defection or division in the great party which elected him. The question at issue is one of such magnitude that Congress would be culpable should it fail to give it the most deliberate consideration before setting upon a definitive policy.

Besides this, the question is held to be one that belongs peculiarly to Congress, and that was referred expressly to that body by the President himself in his annual message and it would be absurd to claim more authority for the views and wishes of the Executive than for the deliberate judgment of the National Legislature. This view of the case was strongly put in the House of Representatives on Saturday by Cook of Illinois, Lawrence of Ohio, and Cullom of Illinois, who contended that the issue was not whether the provisional expedients of the President were commendable, but how shall Congress restore the broken relations of certain States to the Union. They argued that the President had used such power as he possessed as military Commander-in-Chief; the Governments set up by him were military Governments, he still exercises military supervision over the quasi State Governments erected in part by popular action under his guidance, and it is now for Congress alone to decide how and when civil Government shall be restored and military control withdrawn. The presence of military control in the Southern States argues a certain disability for the unrestrained exercise of local and civil authority, resulting from the abandonment through rebellion of the former State Governments; and no lawful State Governments can exist without the formal recognition of Congress.

If the people without law may resume State government traitors will at once control them, and the nation could impose no terms, nor even judge when it would be safe to admit representatives. If the President alone may set up government, without any control by Congress, it would be a fearful power in hands less worthy than those of our present respected Chief Magistrate. When loyalty remains, when civil authority alone will secure obedience to law and protection to life and property, and when the equal rights of all before the law are fully recognized, Congress can safely admit representatives from the South and restoration will be complete, and the time for this glad consummation rests entirely with the Southern States themselves. Meanwhile, let each Department of the National Government perform its appropriate functions—Congress enacting or declaring the will of the people and the President executing that will in the manner prescribed by law. The opinions thus expressed as to the relative duties and powers of Congress and the Executive were fortified by legal argument, based on discussions of the Supreme Court affirming the right of Congress to decide what Government is established in a State upon citations of international law as to the effect of abandoning Government, and upon the expressed opinions of the early writers on American law and of Presidents Lincoln and Johnson. The interesting question thus presented is going into public discussion, and may, if no definite settlement of the reconstruction difficulty is reached by Congress at this session, form an issue in the Fall elections.

Out of 300 000 marriages in England in 1863, only 182,408 were able to sign their names.

The truth is that the Democratic party, as a party, was never a pro-slavery party.—Herald.

The above is a denial of a truth so palpable, that the sublimity of bald-faced impudence is reached in the denial of it. Pray who were John C. Calhoun and his fellow nullifiers? Democrats. Who forced the annexation of Texas to make more room for slavery? The Democratic party. Who forced upon the country the compromise which added the free territory of Missouri to the black map of slavery? The Democratic party. Who brought on the Mexican war in behalf of slavery? The Democratic party. Who overawed Northern doughfaces and exacted, by threats of disunion, the compromise in behalf of slavery by which Northern officers were made hunters of escaped slaves? The Democratic party. Who carried the horrors of civil war into Kansas for the purpose of planting the accursed institution there? Democrats from Missouri. Who countenanced those guerrillas, and gave them the support of the Government in every hellish deed of fire, carnage and blood? A Democratic administration, backed by the Democratic party. Who for years and years, in Congress, threatened to divide the Union, if further guarantees for the extension and perpetuation of slavery were not given by the North? Democratic members sent there by the Democratic party. Who composed the seceding convention at Charleston in 1860? They claimed to be the delegates of the Democratic party. Who were Breckinridge and Jo. Lane? The candidates of that Democratic party. Who was Jeff Davis? The great embodiment of the modern Democracy. What States attempted to secede and break up the Union? The Democratic States where only slavery existed. What reason for it did they assign? That slavery was not sufficiently protected. Who, in the North, justified the act and declared the Government had no right to coerce them? The Democratic party. Who howled as if outraged, when Gen. Butler declared the negroes contraband of war? The Democratic party. Who denounced the Emancipation Proclamation as unconstitutional, oppressive and unjust to "our Southern brethren?" The Democratic party. Who was the last to admit that slavery was dead? The Democratic party. When the rebels had well nigh exhausted their strength, in their attempt to found a nation based upon the idea of Saxon domination and negro servitude, and were forsaken by God and civilized man, to whom did they look as their last and only hope? The Democratic party of the North.

CALIFORNIA AND OWYHEE.—The Californians have not yet learned enough to cause them to desist from their efforts to transport freight overland from Sacramento direct to the Idaho mines. The Union route seems to be given up for the present, as the experience of last year demonstrated that it would not pay. But the enterprising Californians nothing daunted, are trying another route—that by Truckee Pass and the Mud Lakes. The Sacramento Union of a late date, has the following in reference to this new scheme. We [illegible] as it will require the whole of the present year to prove to those who have undertaken the work that it cannot by any possibility compete with the quicker and easier route by way of the Columbia river. The Union says:

"For the purpose of securing to Sacramento the Idaho trade, a subscription has been started in the city to raise $5,000, to be given as a bonus to the first freight train which will carry one hundred tons of merchandise by way of the Truckee route to the Owyhee mines. It is proposed to get up an expedition of ten or fifteen teams to go through together, and the money raised by subscription will be applied to the extra expenses incident to the pioneer trip."

[illegible] was busy yesterday circulating reports of a forthcoming ticket in opposition to the nominations made at the late Republican County Convention in this city.—Herald.

Madame Rumor is a disreputable female, and was "yesterday" engaged in furthering a very dirty Copperhead scheme. Madame Rumor would be very much rejoiced to see the Union men of Multnomah defeat themselves by dividing and supporting two tickets instead of one. She is always rejoiced at the very suspicion of a row, and goes into ecstacies over a Union defeat. During the war, she never failed to announce, in advance of the telegraph, even, the result of each battle as a glorious "defeat" of the Union armies. Her highest earthly ambition is reached when she is permitted to act as mid-wife at the birth of a family broil. The Madame Rumor mentioned above, is intensely Democratic—prides herself on being a "strong partisan." The old lady will be terribly disappointed if the "forthcoming ticket" should happen to not forthcome, but we advise her in such an event to be as composed as possible, and to not rend her bonnet strings. Let us entreat the good Dame to take a little rest and su'thin' strengthin' she must feel the need of it after "circulating" [illegible] so busily "yesterday."

AN ANNIVERSARY.—To-day is the anniversary of the fall of Richmond. That Democratic city was occupied by Gen. Weitzel just after breakfast-time, on the 3d of April 1865, and six thousand Democratic fightingers; five thousand muskets and five hundred cannon were captured. Petersburg, another Democratic stronghold, surrendered the same morning, to Col. Ely, of Wilcox's Division, where also several thousand Democratic voters were corralled. We are not informed as to the ceremonies to be observed among the Democracy of Oregon to-day, but suppose they will be mournful and sadly commemorative of the terrible blow Gen. Grant gave them a year ago.

Did the Democratic party flaunt banners containing only sixteen stars?—Herald.

During the rebellion, the Democracy South, flaunted banners with three stripes and only about eleven stars, as well as we recollect, while the Democracy North, didn't flaunt any banner much. Whenever they did flaunt the American flag a little and feebly, it was under the force of public opinion and not because they loved that style of flaunting.

Did Democrats declare in favor of letting the Union slide?—Herald.

They were not merely in favor of letting it slide; they started it down the sliding scale and did their utmost to make it slide faster, using the bayonet to accelerate its speed, and for the purpose of paying the expenses of the slide, they slid into their pockets, all the Government's money they could lay their hands on.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 31.

Negroes Entitled to Suffrage in Wisconsin.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The Supreme Court of Wisconsin have unanimously decided that colored men are entitled to vote in that State on the following grounds: In 1849, an amendment to the constitution striking out the word "white" from the article on suffrage, received 5,265 votes against 4,075. There being a total of 31,759 votes cast at the same general election, the canvassers declared that the amendment was not ratified for the reason that it did not receive a majority of all the votes cast. The Supreme Court now decide upon a test case submitted that the canvassers had no right to make such a decision, and that the constitutional requirement of a majority of all the votes cast at such election meant only a majority of all the votes cast on this particular question. Therefore the amendment extending the suffrage was adopted seventeen years ago, and must hereafter be regarded as in full force.

Justice Downer announced the above decision of the court to which Chief Justice Dixon added a supplementary opinion, to the effect that other amendments to the Constitution might be adopted by a majority of the votes cast for or against the same at a special election. That the action of the Legislature only required the suffrage amendment to be submitted at a general election, and did not intend that the votes at the same election upon other subjects should be connected with, either for or against, extending the right of suffrage; that any other construction would be contrary to the American idea, that the will of the majority voting upon any subject should prevail. Dixon further declared that the acquiescence of the subsequent Legislature and people in the decision of the canvassers in 1849, and subsequent attempts on two occasions to adopt the same amendment does not invalidate the ratification which the court now declares fully secured in 1849. The colored men who have lived one year in the State will vote at the local elections next Tuesday.

Affairs in the Wisconsin Legislature.

A bill making eight hours a legal day's work passed the Wisconsin House of Representatives on Wednesday, 28th, by 50 against 30. Next day the vote was reconsidered, and the bill postponed till the 4th of July, by 54 against 42, thus killing the measure. The Wisconsin House of Representatives also adopted a resolution submitting to the people the question of calling a constitutional convention.

The Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The statement of the public debt which will be published next week will not show any reduction of the debt. No new issues nor conversions having been made since the last statement, but will show a large increase in the funds.

The Civil Rights Bill in the Senate.

It is expected that the civil rights bill will be taken up in the Senate on Monday, when Mr. Trumbull will make a speech reviewing the President's objections, and other Senators may also speak. There is much active speculation about two or three doubtful Senators, and an ugly rumor is afloat concerning one not hitherto considered doubtful.

All Colored Troops to be Mustered Out.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The Tribune's special dispatch says orders have been issued to muster out all the colored troops the 1st of March.

The New Jersey Candidates for Senator.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The prominent Republican candidates for the New Jersey Senatorship are A. G. Cattell and James A. Scoville. The following dispatch was received by Scoville during his speech in the New Jersey Senate yesterday, dated Washington, March 29. To Hon. JAMES M. SCOVILLE—By all means hurry up the election. Give us no Conservative; a Radical like yourself or nothing. A copperhead is better than a twiddler. Signed, THAD. STEVENS. The rumor circulating here, that Scoville had sold out to the Democrats were not believed, but on the other hand, that he will insist on the election of a radical, or no body.

Constitutional Convention in Wisconsin—Jesse D. Bright, Redivivus.

CHICAGO, March 31.—The Wisconsin Senate passed the House resolutions, submitting to the people the question of calling a Constitutional Convention. Jesse D. Bright has re-appeared in Indiana politics, endorsing the President's policy, and is a candidate for election to the Senate, vice Henry S. Lane.

The Distillery Frauds in New York—Senator Wright.

NEW YORK, March 31.—In the case of recent Distillery frauds on internal revenue in this city, some very heavy assessments have been made; one of two as high as 150,000 dollars, but the defaulters profess their inability to meet the demands of the Government. Compromises will probably be made in some cases, but none of the civil suits will be relinquished. The Newark Advertiser says Senator Wright is still confined to his house, and it is doubtful if he ever resumes his seat in the Senate.

The South American War.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Advices from the seat of war on the Parana river, state that on January 21st a Paraguayan force of 2,000 crossed to the southern bank, had a battle with the allied vanguard, destroyed a large accumulation of timber which the allies were collecting to make rafts, and retired in good order. The Brazilian fleet remained at Corrientes awaiting the arrival of the Admiral, when operations would be commenced. But it is believed the obstructions in the river are so complete that the vessels will not be able to do much.

The question of abolishing slavery in Brazil will be brought before an adjourned session of the Imperial Assembly.

The New Foundland Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Navy Department is sending a squadron to the fishing banks of New Foundland to protect American interests. No trouble is apprehended, but it is thought desirable to have a force on hand. Late London advices indicate that the British Government will not insist on driving American fishermen from those waters, though there may be some delay in establishing their rights after the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty.

Negroes Preparing to Celebrate the fall of Richmond.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Intelligencer says Gen. Terry has warned the colored people of Richmond, not to attempt so imprudent a course as their proposed celebration of the fall of Richmond on the 3d of April, but it appears the movers are still engaged in perfecting arrangements. It is needless to say that no demonstration will be permitted by the Government, and measures have been taken to prevent it.

Fire—Landing of Immigrants—Money Recovered.

The banking house of Duncan, Sherman & Co., on William Street, was on fire this morning. The building was but little injured, but considerable damage was done to the books, papers, and furniture. The steamer Helvetia from Liverpool landed 1032 immigrants to-day. The 20,000 dollars and bonds stolen from Lord Hare have been recovered. The remainder it is expected will also be recovered.

State Elections in Texas.

The Austin, Texas, convention on the 28th passed a resolution to send Messrs. Porter, Hancock, Lane and Henderson as delegates to Washington.

The State election is to be held on the fourth Monday of June, and the legislature meets on the first Monday of August.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—The Grand Jury have found an indictment for perjury against John McCullough, and he was yesterday arrested on a bench warrant issued by Judge Hoffman, and put under $2,500 bonds to appear for trial. The charge is that the said McCullough did, on the 25th day of October 1864, knowingly, willfully, falsely and fraudulently deliver to the assistant assessor of the internal revenue of the United States a false and fraudulent return, account and statement of the number of gallons of the fermented liquors and the spirits distilled by him.

John W. Brumagin and Wm. E. Satterlee, have been appointed administrators, with the will annexed, of the estate of Jacob O. Baldamann, on filing a bond of $2,000 each.

A Reaction in Gold—The Ocean Steamers.

There has been quite a reaction in gold in New York. The price yesterday opened at 120 and closed strong at 128. Legal tenders have not fully responded. Sales at the board at 78@78½, seller 30, but the leading brokers are buying at 78½, and selling at 79.

Business is improving, a fact due in part to the competition between the Oregon steamers. The Pacific is already about full, having secured a large quantity of government freight at a comparatively high figure. Her charge on what little miscellaneous freight she carries is $3 per ton. She sails to-morrow morning. The Montana with about three times the capacity of the Pacific is filling up at $5 per ton.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Steamship Constitution, Captain Baby, left her wharf at 11 A. M. to-day, for Panama, with 250 passengers and $439,344.88 in treasure.

Patrick McMahon, an old man formerly in the United States naval service, attempted to commit suicide last evening by taking strychnine. A physician was called, who relieved his stomach of the poison and saved his life. In explanation of the act he said he took the draught supposing it would produce sleep.

The twelfth district court will be opened on Monday, before Judge Pratt.

The California Guard was presented with an elegant flag, at their armory on Howard street, last evening, the gift of the ladies living in the neighborhood of the armory.

Louis Bowman, the colleague of Viner, was arrested by the officers in an open boat on the bay, on his way to the Panama steamer. He is reported to have sold out his furniture yesterday and taken passage for himself and wife for Panama. A jury was empanelled in the case, and the court proceeded with the trial, which is in progress.

A private dispatch from New York, dated yesterday, quotes gold at 131½. The legal tender market is unsettled, with a slight business at 77@78; latter prices over the counter.

Petitions signed by lots of names asking the Governor to veto the bill for increase of city railroad fares, and the bill to tax the State $2,260,000 for the benefit of railroad corporations in the interior, will be sent to Sacramento to-night.

Louis Bowman, alias Plummer, the partner of Viner, who was convicted in the county court yesterday, deposited $5000 in gold coin to-day as bail, and was released.

Daniel A. McMillan has recovered a verdict in the 15th District Court against James R. Dickey et al, for $2146 for digging and making the Ocean House race course.

Heyn & Weyn, grocers on the corner of Twelfth and Folsom streets, failed yesterday, and attachment suits were commenced against them for $13,031.

The Gould & Curry Company have entered into a contract with the Sutro Tunnel Company for the drainage of their mines on the Comstock ledge.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The steamers Pacific and Montana, which will sail hence to-morrow for Portland, will carry up a large number of miners, en route for Idaho and Montana. Most of them will proceed to Blackfoot.

Among the passengers who left for the East to-day by the Constitution, with Hon. Cornelius Cole and family—the Senator elect from California—are Hon. A. J. Cain and H. Sinclair, of Walla Walla, W. T.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS
READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of Health, "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the Stomach, and sustain
The Nerves, the servants of the brain.
The Liver keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day,
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the inner man,
And like a watch that's kept in [illegible]
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too,
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"Hostetter's Bitters," we reply,
Is Health's EUREKA [illegible]

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the drooping spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air,
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground,
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must [illegible], or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand power [illegible] and [illegible]
Is threatened evil to prevent;
And if you'd be relieved [illegible]
From ills that crush the [illegible],
Hostetter's Bitters [illegible]
They are the [illegible]

To set at defiance the malaria of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded workrooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a [illegible]
Colic and [illegible] to pains,
Beneath which the strongman's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those [illegible],
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoeas that [illegible]
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom,
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
H[illegible] Bitters [illegible] sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious [illegible], constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, [illegible] weakness, [illegible], and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To [illegible] holds long, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Boston correspondent of the Sacramento Union writing under date of February 19th, says: "We had another speech on the Pacific Railroad last week. It was by Major General G[illegible], and delivered before the Legislature. He advocated strongly the Northern route as possessing great advantages over the Central, described the mineral riches of Montana and Idaho in glowing words, gave facts and figures concerning grades and tunnels—the heaviest of the former he said, did not exceed sixty-six feet to the mile and contrasted the advantages in the matter of trade with Asia and connection with important trade marts of the two [illegible] routes, deriving conclusions very favorable to the Northern."

From other sources we are advised that Boston, Chicago and Buffalo are the three giants who propose to stride over the territories of the north with seven-league boots and bind them in iron fetters. The project is being pushed in earnest by men of those cities who devote time, heart and fortune to it. The first link will probably connect the upper Missouri in Montana, with the Columbia or eastern Oregon. It is believed that 300 miles of the road will unite the navigable waters of these two streams. An exploring expedition of capitalists, scientific men and members of the press will leave St. Paul in May crossing via Mullan's Pass to the Columbia.

THE LAST MARRIAGE.—The neutrality of Vancouver is no longer regarded. The last couple that can hope to have their cup of bliss filled by an elopement to the Gretna Green, were joined together and made happy on Saturday evening last, on board the steamer Fannie Troup as she lay at the wharf, and then they returned to Portland by the steamer Julia and are this are on their way [illegible] the [illegible] duties of their new life far up in the [illegible] Willamette. The utter indifference which Vancouver has felt toward our people in this respect will long [illegible] [illegible]ered, and those Ministers and Justices of the Peace who have continued to tie the conjugal knot until the eve of All Fool's Day, notwithstanding the dispute about the legality of the proceeding have certainly [illegible] to answer for.

[illegible].—The Oregon Iron Works of this city have [illegible] one of the finest engines ever made on the [illegible] [illegible] cylinders 14 by 24 inches, boiler 15 feet [illegible] and 32 inches in diameter, for Messrs Forsyth [illegible] & Co. of Salem, to be used in a new saw mill [illegible] & Co., of Canemah, have also, at the O. S. [illegible] wharf, a large portable engine, boiler, etc [illegible] a like establishment at Canemah. The city [illegible] great inducements to parties who [illegible] go into the lumber business. The article is [illegible] at [illegible]. Logs can be procured on the [illegible] above Priest's Rapids, and easily run to [illegible] a mill would pay more profitably than at [illegible] on the river.

[illegible] COURT.—Charles Hoffner paid a fine of $5 [illegible] day upon conviction before Recorder Hoff[illegible] [illegible] of Eliza Hollister, at a notorious [illegible] on the South side of Washington street, West of First street. The testimony of the [illegible] to show the debasing character of the [illegible] no wonder in the minds of those present [illegible] a stench in the nostrils of the community. [illegible] Capt. Johnson and H. Waters were [illegible] the chronic complaint of d. d., the [illegible] and the latter [illegible] up with the hospitality.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—Messrs Knapp, Burrell & Co., of this city, are now receiving their agricultural [illegible] machinery for the harvest and farm work [illegible] of 1866. Their stock this year is much larger [illegible], embracing about 1,500 tons, which will continue to arrive to this date, until their entire purchases, made by Mr. Burrell, are received from the East. The [illegible] make a part of their business a specialty, and by the first day of May they will be able to exhibit a greater variety of seeds such as are wanted by the farmers [illegible] of our country.

[illegible] We [illegible] in error yesterday by stating [illegible] river was 12 feet and four inches above low water [illegible] Saturday. It should have read nine feet four, [illegible] inches from noon on Saturday [illegible], and the guage showed a height of ten [illegible] water mark. Nearly all the shipping in [illegible] from the highest docks, but no damage [illegible] to result from the high water.

[illegible] RUNAWAY.—Yesterday the teams of Mr. [illegible] and Mr. [illegible] both ran away on Front street, [illegible] [illegible]ily. The team of the former [illegible] to the Southern [illegible] of the city without [illegible] material damage, while that of the latter [illegible] upset the contents of about [illegible], and played particular hob with everything [illegible] came in contact.

[illegible] [illegible] the application to sell real estate in the [illegible] heirs, granting the prayer. [illegible] was appointed guardian for the heirs of [illegible] Morgan, dec'd, for the purpose of selling [illegible] Mr. P. Wright was appointed guardian [illegible] heirs of Mr. Hitchcock, dec'd, for final [illegible]. Court adjourned to meet at [illegible].

[illegible] STOCK.—Four hundred shares of Eagle [illegible] Gold and Silver Mining Company's Stock sold [illegible] at $10 per share. This company own mines [illegible] on the Eagle Creek district, Union county, [illegible] are gold and four silver bearing. They [illegible] machinery, and it is expected will be working [illegible] with profit before the close of the summer.

[illegible] Our friends Dr. Heath, J[illegible] Lang, [illegible] yesterday for the [illegible]. They [illegible] divided as to the localities, going together [illegible] at White Bluffs, where Mr. Lang [illegible] [illegible] continuing to Montana, and [illegible] to Big Bend. We wish them all success.

[illegible].—Our [illegible] contemporary yesterday [illegible] a fight between a large rat and some terrier [illegible] of Washington and Front streets, but [illegible]. It should have been added that [illegible] finally dispatched by Mr. C. A. Burchardt's [illegible], but a triple larger than the rat.

[illegible] number of men are engaged [illegible] the drift wood from the current of the river [illegible] the high water, and some few of them appear to [illegible] a [illegible] of shingles, twisted a [illegible] picked up [illegible] day. One man fell [illegible] and a small boat was badly stove in.

[illegible].—Dr. A. M. Loryea requests us to state [illegible] error occurred in the proceedings of the County [illegible]. Anticipated he is [illegible] as acting for [illegible], when it should have been credited to [illegible]. Mr. L. was not a member of the [illegible].

HAIL.—Hail three [illegible] as large as hen's eggs, rained down freely in [illegible]. The day [illegible] [illegible] spell is about to [illegible] go.

NEW.—The [illegible] Oregon [illegible] Columbia and Oregon line, which begin [illegible] trips soon, will, before the close of the year, be able to run to the Fair Grounds, thence to [illegible] Hotel, thence to the stable—if on Washington [illegible] stuck in the mud.

[illegible] COURT.—In the case of [illegible] vs. [illegible] Oregon, suit in admiralty, brought [illegible] yesterday, a decree was entered for [illegible] want of answer, on the amount of the [illegible] $1,000.

[illegible] BAIL.—The motion to admit M. F. [illegible] was argued before Judge M. D. Shattuck in [illegible] yesterday, and [illegible] in the defendant's [illegible] fixed at $3,000.

[illegible].—The Board of Delegates for the [illegible] Fire Department met last evening at the Council [illegible], and elected Wm. H. Wetzel, Second Assistant [illegible], vice [illegible].

[illegible].—What is the similarity between the passengers [illegible], which runs from the Cascades to the Dalles, and a crowd at a famous horse-race? Because they are constantly looking for the noble nags (Knaggs).

WHICH WILL LAST THE LONGEST?—Competent judges have decided that instead of the Nicolson pavement being a bilk it will [illegible] the Macadam by many years, as the [illegible] have been laid down in this city.

THE NEW WORLD.—This splendid steamer of the O. S. N. [illegible] is being fitted up for business. There is a [illegible] current that she is to leave for the north soon, but it is not certain when.

TREASURE.—These are days for small receipts of treasure from the Upper country. Yesterday but $4 was reported at Wells, Fargo & Co's, the principal part of which belonged to the messenger.

FOUND.—The gold fish supposed to have been stolen from Mr. Shrader of the City Brewery, have come to light [illegible] had been seeking food at the bottom of the aquarium.

[illegible].—The proprietors of Oro Fino Hall have concluded to add 20 feet more to the main building, giving space for a stage and rooms for other purposes.

[illegible].—Inspector Gray yesterday seized ten [illegible] of [illegible] wine for duties, under the laws of Congress relating to such cases.

DELINQUENT SALE.—The list of lands delinquent for taxes appears at the Marshal's office. The sale will be held on the 25th inst.

MARRIED:

Mr Huntington who came down yesterday by the stage reports that though he has traveled the roads of Oregon, in all seasons and weathers for the last fourteen years, and has seen many "a hard road to travel," he found them yesterday worse than he had ever known them, and deeper, muddier and rougher than he had ever conceived it possible for them to become.

We have been several days without a mail from middle and southern Oregon—on account of high water—but we learn from the telegraph operator here that the California and southern Oregon mails were put on the steamer at Eugene yesterday and will arrive here to day. We shall certainly make it most welcome.

J. W. P. Huntington, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, arrived in town last evening on his way to the Warm Springs where he is going to formally turn over to Capt. Smith the charge of the Indians and Government property of the Reservation.

The telegraph announces the coming of a rush of passengers by the steamers to arrive this evening or to-morrow. They are mostly bound for the mines.

Montgomery, the man shot by one Strickland about two weeks ago near Umatilla, and who was thought for some time to be in a critical condition, is rapidly recovering, being now able to get about.

The Mountaineer says the Ju[illegible] Democracy of the Dalles are trying to play off "Roorbacks" on the Union ticket, to affect the municipal election. We are not told the character of the roorbacks, but as long as the Union ticket has no Confederate Greybacks on it, it must be better than the other fellow, and we advise the people to elect it.

The telegraph line went down again last evening at some point near Yreka, too late for repair till this morning.

FOR COUGHS AND THROAT DISORDERS, use "Brown's Bronchial Troches," having proved their efficacy by a test of many years.

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

The Young Widow

She is modest, she is bashful,
Free and easy but not bold—
Like an apple ripe and mellow
Not too young and not too old,
Half inviting, half repulsive,
Now advancing and now shy;
There is mischief in her dimple
There is danger in her eye

She has studied human nature
She is schooled in all her arts
She has taken her diploma
As the mistress of all hearts
She can tell the very moment
When to sigh and when to smile—
Oh! a maid is sometimes charming,
But a widow all the while

You are sad? How very serious
Will her handsome face become;
Are you angry? She is wretched,
Lonely friendless tearful dumb
Are you mirthful? How her laughter,
Silver sounding, will ring out!
She can lure and catch and play you,
As the angler does the trout

All old bachelors of forty
Who have grown so bold and wise
Ye Adonises of twenty
With your love-locks in your eyes,
You may practice all the lessons
Taught by Cupid since the fall
But I know a little widow
Who could easy win you all!

Montana News.

The Montana Post of March 3d, contains the following:

THE STATE GOVERNMENT SCHEME.

It is now pretty thoroughly understood, that the people of this Territory are against a State organization for the present. However desirable such a thing may be in the future, it is not wanted now. The miners and farmers, who are not office seekers, are almost to a man against the project, and a leading Democrat assured us that the tactics of the party had so changed, that Madison and Beaver Head were all against the movement. This is as it should be, and is the only common sense view of the matter. We can very [illegible] and effectually do all that is necessary for the welfare of our people and the development of our resources, with the machinery placed at our disposal by the Organic Act; while neither necessity nor prospective benefit can be urged as a reason for rushing madly into extravagant expenditure. The forming of a State organization for Montana, just now, is not less absurd than the manufacture of a golden crowbar to mend the stockings of a small family, when a steel needle would do the [illegible] admirably. The machinery of a State is too large, too unwieldy, too expensive, and in every way undesirable in our present position. Miners would find their claims taxed to the last color in the [illegible]; foreign capital would be kept out by taxation, and farmers would be worse off than under the old tithe law of Britain. Our people are not foolish, and they [illegible] this.

THE DISCHARGE OF DANIELS.

It will be remembered that a man named James Daniels was convicted, at Helena, of murder in the [illegible] degree, (manslaughter), and sentenced to imprisonment and fine. He was undergoing his sentence in Madison county jail, when acting Governor Meagher, in response to a petition of thirty-two individuals, discharged [illegible] acting under his constitutional power vested in [illegible] ritory. [illegible] at once [illegible] City [illegible] jurisdiction [illegible] only the power to [illegible] (leave) the execution of a sentence of death pronounced in a United States Court, until the President's decision could be had in the matter. There is no pardoning power whatever vested in the Executive, as far as regards United States' matters, and the discharge is wholly illegal. The sheriff, legally speaking, should have held the prisoner; but, as he acted in good faith, there is no culpability or disgrace attaching to him. The Governor refusing to act in the matter, Judge Munson has ordered the re-arrest of the prisoner, if he can be found, and the acting U. S. Marshal is after him. The sheriff reports that the criminal has escaped from the precinct. What renders the matter worse is, that Daniels declared, in the presence of several officials, that, if he escaped, he would have the lives of some of the witnesses [illegible]

A SUICIDE.

We are sorry to say that the body of James H. McGregor, the unfortunate man whose mysterious absence from his home was mentioned in our last issue, has been found, by a hunter, lying under a tree about three miles from his cabin, in Summit. One end of the rope was fast to the limb of a tree, and the detached portion, probably broken in the death struggle, was around his neck. He had one hundred and fifty dollars in his pocket, when discovered. Death was evidently inflicted by his own hand.

LEAD SMELTING.

We have received a sample of lead from Wisconsin gulch, where Mr. Frank Crain is smelting some of the ore, in which the district abounds. It is apparently pure, soft, and fit for all necessary [illegible] uses. It sells readily, we hear, at fifty cents per pound. The quantity for sale is 1,500 pounds. [illegible] excellent lime is also burnt by Mr. Crain.

AMPUTATION EXTRAORDINARY.

On Monday last at his own office, Dr. [illegible] soll, assisted by Dr. Turner, amputated five toes from the feet of Mr. Mathews. The sufferer had been in the hospital, but did not like his treatment. His age is about fifty years, and he was frozen during the [illegible]

[illegible]

As [illegible] the Democrats and their allies, did greatly rejoice over the [illegible]. A meeting was held on Thursday [illegible] at the Court Room, their [illegible] blent wholehouse, Chas. B. Bagg, in the chair. Major Bruce, Col. [illegible] ghman, Judge Maybew and acting-Governor Meagher addressed the people, endorsing the President's policy, and cursing the Puritans of New England. Judge Maybew and Col. [illegible]'s speeches were moderate in tone and expression; but the other speakers expressed the most inveterate malignity towards the religion and people of the Northern people. Major Bruce, of course, had to fall back on the nigger, the mainstay of the Democracy, and the inspiration of the orators.

THE ELECTIONS.

The election on Saturday last, was the most exciting one ever held in Beaver Head county. The so-called Democratic ticket, engineered by Benj. Peabody, was badly defeated, the entire anti-State ticket being elected.

Messrs H. J. Smith and Wood were elected to the House, and E. T. Phelps to the Council, Dr Leavitt holding over. The Delegates to the Convention are Messrs. Cooper, Wright, King, Batchelder, and the Hon. Mr. Kelser. All of them are number one men, and all of them will go against a State organization with all their might.

In Madison County all went Democratic. Jas Spratt is elected to the Council and Jas. M. Rice to the House.

LANDOCK ITEMS.

Mr. Fowler has also gone to New York. He intends to form a company, and to bring out hydraulic machinery to work in the gulch.

Major Thomas Watson has gone to Pittsburg to organize a company for the Rattlesnake Mines. He will also go to Boston to investigate Dr. Ayer's method of extracting the precious metal.

Prof. A. G. McComb of the "Gold Hill and Montana Mining Company," has just started to New York for a mill. He intends to stop a few days in Denver in order to investigate the new methods of extracting gold from quartz.

The rush is still to Beaver Head for new farms. Judge Hosford is building a house, and intends moving out as soon as it is finished, and many others are building, intending to move out in the Spring. The soil is said to be exceedingly rich, being a deep, loose, sandy loam, warm and inviting to the farmer.

Mr W. Murphy and the Overland intend making a good wagon road down Red Rock and Beaver Head, keeping near the mountains to the east and crossing Stinkingwater at Lorain's and making it free. Mr. M has a charter for the road from Snake river to the Junction. They will grade all the hills and canons with a sixteen foot grade, and make a good hard road over the sandy desert. There will be but one toll-gate (at Beaver's Canon) and only five dollars per wagon. Farmers along the road are provided with a free pass.

INDIAN OUTRAGES

From a letter from George Steele, of Benton, dated the 26th ult, we learn that the Piegans and Bloods, of treaty making notoriety, are still camped there, and are stealing all they can lay their hands upon. Four of the young redskins stole a sack of flour out of Mr Steele's wagon, which was accompanied only by the teamster. Jerry Mann and Dupont, who had just come in from Milk river, report a party of white men missing, who should have been in twenty days ago. It is thought the Indians have killed them, as the savages told of a man being killed near the Bear's Paw Mountains two weeks since. Mann has lost eighty head of cattle on the road. His whole loss will not exceed one hundred head. Capt Mathews' loss is in the same proportion. They are in good spirits, and the cattle were doing well, when they left. The trains were forty eight hours journey from Benton. They saw no Indians.

GENERAL GRANT'S POSITION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York News, pretty good authority on this subject, gives the following in regard to General Grant's views, which are decidedly against those of the President:

General Grant's position upon the admission of Southern members, as expressed in a late conversation, is that those who are loyal and who are elected by loyal constituents and can take the test oath should be received. This he said would admit, probably seven in all. On being told that there were eight from Tennessee at once he replied that some from that State should not be received. He heartily approved of the Freedmen's Bureau bill except that he thinks that only army officers should be employed by the Bureau, in order to save expense. He is in favor of trying the editors of the Richmond Examiner for treason. He is firm in his opposition to the withdrawal of troops.

H. Rives Pollard told the correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer that Gen. Grant said if he had it in his power he would suppress the Cincinnati Enquirer and the New York News for their disloyalty.

NO BALM.—Elder T—— having occasion to preach in the town of Gilead, chose what he fancied the appropriate text: "Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?" He tells the result:

It happened that among my hearers was an old negro who had lived a great many years in the family of the village doctor, and nothing could rile the old fellow so quick as the mere suggestion that the doctor didn't know anything. Every time that I repeated the text I noticed the old darkey manifested much emotion, which I attributed to the peculiar fervency of the African temperament; but warming with the subject, I repeated the text with unusual pathos: "Is there no balm in Gilead, and is there no physician there?" Old Pomp could stand it no longer, and springing to his feet, he said: "Don't know nuffin 'bout the balm, Massa, but dere's jes' good doctor here as dere is in de world."

STRANGE HISTORY OF A BULLET.—George B. Zane, a member of the Weccacoe fire company, while proceeding to the fire occasioned by the explosion at Evans' gun store, on Wednesday morning last, felt something roll down his side into his boot, which, upon examination, was found to be a portion of the bullet that caused the loss of his arm. Zane was a Sergeant of a company attached to Baxter's Fire Zouaves, and was severely wounded in the first battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia, on December 13, 1862. For some time past he was greatly annoyed with considerable pain, which he supposed was caused by a splinter of bone still in his side. The piece of ball was in his side for the period of three years, less fourteen days.—Philadelphia Press.

SENATOR SUMNER'S SPEECH.—The New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

The manuscript of Senator Sumner's recent speech on "Republican Government and its Guarantees" has been presented to a well-known Republican friend in this city. It makes 170 foolscap pages, and, with the "Barbarism of Slavery," is [illegible] extensive "autograph" of the radical Massachusetts Senator that any one can boast of possessing. The manuscript is highly prized by its possessor, as being the basis of Sumner's most elaborate speech and so closely connected with the historic scenes through which the country is now passing.

RACES AT MOBILE.—The horses are beginning to assemble rapidly at Mobile, and many excellent stables are already present. The Jockey Club races over the Magnolia Course promise to prove attractive. Trotting horses, in addition to running stock, are beginning to arrive at Mobile. Nashville, Louisville and Cincinnati will be largely represented there. Among the most noted trotters announced as having arrived, we notice the names of Nebucblish, John Morrissey, Maggie Mitchell, Lotta, Whirlwind and others. The turfmen of Alabama feel encouraged at the flattering prospects [illegible]

CONFEDERATES IN MEXICO.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Cordova, in Mexico, under date of January 15th, gives an account of a visit he made to the Confederate settlement, ten miles from that city. Among the colonists are Governor Harris, General Price, Judge Perkins, General Shelby, General Ewell, and others of note. They have all taken the oath of allegiance to Maximilian, have confidence in the stability of his throne; have sent for their families; are apparently contented, and manifest less acerbity towards the United States than the rebels who have not emigrated.

SLEEPING WITH THE HEAD TO THE NORTH.—Herr Dr. Julius von Fitschweiler, an eccentric German physician, recently died, leaving in his will what he considered a secret for increasing the years of our life. His own age was 109, and he attributed it to the fact that he always slept with his head to the north, and the rest of his body as nearly as possible in a meridinal position. By this means, he thought, the iron in his body became magnetized, and thus increased the energy of the vital principle.

NOBODY TO DESERVE IT.—At the Christmas ceremonies in Rome the Pope blessed a sword and an embroidered cap for presentation to some Christian sovereign who during the year had deserved well of the Roman Court. For some years, however, a suitable person to receive the articles has not been found, and this year sword and cap are consigned to the wardrobe of the sanctuary.—English Paper.

HORRORS OF WAR.—One of the boys of the 3d Colorado Cavalry, who passed through one season's bushwacking in Missouri, all the battles of the border, and through an Indian campaign on the Arkansas, writes from Indiana that he "never realized the horrors of war till he got home to Indiana and found his gal married to a stay-at-home dry-goods clerk."

A certain minister going to visit one of his sick parishioners, asked him how he had rested during the night? "Oh, wondrous ill, sir," replied he, "for mine eyes have not come together these three nights." "What was the reason of that?" said the other. "Alas! sir," says he, "because my nose is betwixt them."

HEAVY TIMBER.—A miner who lately came from Virginia City says vegetation is so scarce in that region that "two mullen stalks and a bunch of thistles is called grove."

Hon. Isaac Newton, Commissioner of Agriculture, expects a very superior article of wheat from Odessa, which will be distributed for seed on the orders of members of Congress.

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO.

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as

Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Social Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

Stricture of the Urethra

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system. Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more formidable character than that seen in the Atlantic States or Europe, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those of you who have visited the two latter countries no doubt have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population. It requires altogether different modes of treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little account, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which sooner or later will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more practice in these diseases than any other physician in California, dating as it does from 1849. It becomes you, therefore, to think well, before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled amongst you?

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,

Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia,

And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc., and impurities of the blood; cured in a short time by the use of my VEGETABLE MIXTURES known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation, etc., etc., have been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time.

Be not deterred from calling on Dr. TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is a man in whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the utmost secrecy.

My Female Pills

Are the best ever used in this Climate for the Suppression of the Monthly Sickness. Every lady should have a box in case of necessity. Price $5. Consultation at the office or by letter FREE. All letters returned or destroyed. Office hours from 9 A. M. till 8 P. M.

building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting this statement, to show the public
